

SARANAC LAKE FREE LIBRARY NOTES – Christy Fontana

COME TO THE FAIR AUGUST 7-10

“Welcome to Our Neighborhood” is the theme of the library’s popular summer event, Come to the Fair. There will be hundreds of hardcover and paperback books for children and adults, along with DVDs, CDs, puzzles, games and baked goods. The Unique Boutique will return with a selection of jewelry, fashion accessories and handmade crafts.

The hours of the sale are as follows: August 7, 8, 10:00 to 7:00, August 9, 10:00 to 7:00, ½ price sale day, August 10, 9:00 – 12:00, $5.00 bag of books sale.

Members’ Night

As a thank you for their generous support of the library, those who have contributed to the 2018 Membership Campaign are welcome at a special opening on Monday, August 6, from 5:30 to 7 p.m.

Come to the Fair Donations

We are no longer accepting book donations for the Fair. This gives our volunteers time to sort the books and organize the sale. Please do not leave book donations on the Library’s porch.

The Unique Boutique is accepting donations of new, handmade, knitted, quilted, crocheted and any other craft or Adirondack creations. Women’s fashion accessories, jewelry, scarves, hats, artwork, collectables and boutique items are also appreciated. No dishes, glassware, appliances or garage sale items, please. The last date to donate is 2 p.m., Saturday, August 4.

Baked goods will be accepted starting 8 a.m. on Tuesday, August 7, opening day.

Loon Lake Live

The library is hosting a series of short, classical, chamber concerts performed by the world-class musicians of Loon Lake Live. These free, family-oriented concerts will take place in the Children’s Room at 10:30 on the Saturday mornings of July 14, 21 & 28.

Have You Seen

There is a delightful display of Adirondack books and figurines in the lobby display case. Once again, Margaret Worden has brightened up the library foyer.

Current Events Cafe

All are welcome to join this group for good coffee and congenial conversation about local, national and world events. They will meet in the Dickert from 10:30 to noon on Mondays, July 16 & 19 On July 30 and August 6 & 13, this group will meet at the Left Bank Café.

Book Groups

The library's book groups for fiction, science and racism will resume in the fall.
