MEET THE FISH

Book Donations

The SLFL has made some adjustments regarding donations for our Winter Carnival Book Sale. We will begin accepting donations on Monday, October 1, during regular library hours. Donations left outside the building will be discarded. We will accept only items in good condition: fiction, non-fiction, DVDs, audio books on CD and complete games and puzzles. We will accept up to three boxes or bags of donations at a time, and request contact information with all donations.

The following items are not saleable, thus the library cannot accept them: textbooks, National Geographic hardcovers, Reader's Digest Condensed Books, computer software manuals, encyclopedias, outdated medical publications (Pre 2011), Time/Life series, paperback romance, magazines, VHS tapes, cassette tapes and outdated calendars. Please do not contribute items stored in musty basements or attics, or contaminated with mildew.

In Appreciation

The library extends a sincere thank you to everyone who participated in our Come to the Fair summer sale

Story Time Program

Preschool story time resumes on Thursday, September 20, at 10:30 a.m. This program for caregivers and preschoolers will be offered every Thursday at 10:30 in accordance with the Saranac Lake School District calendar.

Current Events Café

Everyone is welcome to enjoy good coffee or tea, and join in congenial conversation about local, national and world events. This group meets in the Dickert Room on Mondays from 10:30 to noon.

Adirondack Research Room

There are still a few interesting Adirondack books, duplicates from the collection, and ephemera for sale in the Adirondack Research Room. All items are marked down to half price.

Racism Study Group

On Monday, September 17, at 2 p.m. this group will meet to discuss, “Stamped From the Beginning” by Ibram X. Kendi.

Science Book Group

“The Water Will Come” by Jeff Goddell will be reviewed at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, September 18.

Great Film Series

“High Noon” starring Gary Cooper, will be shown in the Cantwell Room at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, September 25. Everyone is welcome. There is no fee.
